

M.A. English (Liberal Arts)

The Degree for the Next Decade

Forget the old way of studying English. This is not your typical literature course; it's a powerful future-ready master's degree designed to make you a sharp thinker and a compelling communicator in any field.

We combine the soul of literature with the hard skills of the modern world. If you want a degree that opens doors everywhere—from publishing houses and media to tech companies and corporate strategy—this is your launchpad.

Your Uniqueness Factor: Beyond the Book

The MA English (Liberal Arts) programme gives you a crucial, competitive edge: Depth and Breadth.

You will gain a deep understanding of storytelling and language (the Depth) while connecting it to major global areas like technology, human well-being, and social change (the Breadth).

Area	We call it...	What You'll Learn in Plain English
Literature	The Art of the Story	How great stories—past and present, from India and the world—are built. You'll move past old textbooks to explore new writers, films, and cultural ideas.
Interdisciplinary	Mind & World Connect	We link English to other powerful fields. Study Digital Humanities (how tech meets texts) and explore Yoga, Philosophy, and Positive Psychology to master your mind and career.
Skills	The Communication Toolkit	You'll master the most valuable skills employers want: clear academic writing, confident public speaking, and the art of Translation to bridge languages and cultures.

Research	Problem-Solving Power	Learn how to think like a researcher and solve real-world problems. Your course culminates in an Internship or Dissertation —your big project to prove your impact.
